I truely believe that allowing cell phone use on the airplanes would be a terrible mistake. People are so inconsiderate when using their phones and always talking louder than usual. In a tight enclosed space such as an airplane this would be a horrible situation. People can afford to be out of touch for the time it takes for most flights. On the longer flights, give them the opportunity to have internet access, BUT NOT CELL PHONE USE!!!!!!!